Göteborg – Stockholm

The best sides of Sweden. A train trips that takes you to two cities on opposites sides of Sweden – little brother on the west coast and big brother on the east. Experience the big city pulse, the calm of the breathtaking archipelagos and the wonderful mix of the old with the new. These two cities complement each other perfectly.

Göteborg – the pearl of the west coast

Göteborg is a little big city that is characterised by its proximity to the sea. It’s easy to get around the city on foot or by tram, and the archipelago boats will soon whisk you off to the popular picnic cliffs and bathing bays. Göteborg is also home to the largest amusement park in the Nordic Region – Liseberg, with its numerous cafes, prize-winning restaurants, lush parks and so much more besides.

Stockholm – the royal capital

Stockholm is one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Built on fourteen islands, it’s a city of contrasts and often perceived by visitors as being quite unique. It’s an international metropolis, modern and trendy, yet bursting with culture, traditions and a history that stretches back an entire millennium. Few cities can compete with Stockholm’s ability to offer a taste of modern urban life, historical culture and wonderful countryside – all in one and the same day.

How to get there:

• X2000s depart every hour throughout the day.
• The travel time is around 3 hours.
• Stop-off suggestions: Skövde, to see the Bilingen museum, and Örebro to see the old town, Växjödingen.
